CHALLENGE: SILO'D DATA INHIBITED DECISION MAKING

The Glimcher Group knew they had powerful data, but it wasn't easy to access. "We never had a great database," said Robert Glimcher, President of the Glimcher Group. "MRI was the magic database of accounting;" the data was in MRI, but nobody was gleaming insights from it.

"I used to meet quarterly with my CFO and go over finances and what was in each account." But the Glimcher Group wanted to have their data at their fingertips constantly, not just quarterly. Glimcher wanted a system that would be used by all stakeholders, including executives, operations, leasing, accounting, marketing, and property management.

SOLUTION: ACTIONABLE REPORTING THE WHOLE TEAM CAN USE

The Glimcher team turned to Datex because they wanted to have instant access to their data all the time; not just monthly and quarterly.

Glimcher was delighted by the customizability of Datex's platform. "We loved dealing with Datex from the beginning." Glimcher said. "I don't think there's anything we asked for that we couldn't get if we wanted to add it on to our system."

The secret? Datex integrated the Glimcher Group's dispersed data and consolidated reporting with visual tools that aligned stakeholders around core metrics and trusted information. With Datex, Glimcher's whole team had on-demand access to the core data that drives their business, without the manual compilation of data and documents.

"It's made us more transparent as a company because everything's there for everyone at the same time. It's made what we do easier."

RESULTS: A SINGLE SOURCE OF TRUTH INFORMING BETTER DECISIONS

The Glimcher Group now enjoys a comprehensive library of more than 40 dashboards, over 100 reports and several dozen controls for tracking their key dates, dollars, trends and variances.

Glimcher was thrilled by what Datex allowed him and his team to accomplish. “Datex is exactly what we wanted for a database for our real estate properties. It gives us a dashboard for everything we need. It’s great!”

The National Tenant function even helps Glimcher manage his properties across the nation. “It’s so easy to know where we stand on centers. I can look at any center and find whatever I want in there. I couldn’t look at all that before Datex.”

Datex has redefined how the Glimcher group collaborates. “Everything we needed was right there. It’s really nice for collaboration—working together as a team—you can find all the data at the same time.” Every day, dozens of users access hundreds of reports, dashboards and tracked items.

“I think Datex is a great product and I hope it continues to improve, like it has for us. Datex keeps innovating new solutions and we use them a lot.”
